On 7 November 2016 the third Members Council meeting took place at the Latvian National Library in Riga. Revised Strategy, Association mission Statement, Task Forces and Working Groups, Thematic collections and voting and elections were on the agenda.

On 8-9 November 2016 the 'Show us what you've got' AGM took place at the Latvian National Library in Riga. The event was visited by more than 200 members of the Europeana Network Association. We had a line-up of ten amazing speakers, 21 Ignite talks, exciting topics at nine Chef's tables and a visit to the Latvian National Museum of Art.

On 7-9 November 2016, the first international Transcribathon challenge took place at the Latvian National Library in Riga. The event was held during the course of the 2016 Europeana Network Annual General Meeting (AGM). Nine teams from across Europe put their transcribing skills to the test and presented their results to an international jury.

The teams were given 48 hours to transcribe a chosen source, and were judged for the transcription quality and quantity, as well as their presentations. After careful deliberation, the High Jury, composed of Stephan Bull, Mia Ridge and Harry Verwayen, awarded prizes to the best teams in the categories of Transcription and Presentation.

Europeana Network Association

The Europeana Network Association is a dedicated group of experts working in the field of digital heritage. To this date 9 people from Latvia have registered to become a Europeana Network Association Member.

Every year the Europeana Network Association elects the Members Council consisting of 36 members who play a crucial role across all Europeana's activities.

Also the Members Council appoints six members to form its Management Board, who sit on the Europeana Governing Board and represent the Network in the Europeana Foundation's executive decision making. In 2017, Uldis Zarins from the National Library of Latvia got reelected, after being in the Members Council in 2015 and 2016, again and is also elected to be part of the Management Board till 2019.
