Participation in projects

Currently there are no Maltese partners in EU-funded projects that contribute to Europeana. The projects directly support to knowledge and technology sharing between libraries, museums, archives, software agencies and university research departments. The activities include delivering content, technology and knowledge to Europeana. It would be a positive outcome if we could get our Maltese partners to participate in this.

Aggregation to Europeana

Europeana Collections features over 50 million records of which 55,165 are provided by Maltese Institutions. Most records are provided by Across Limits and CARARE. All records aggregated by Malta can be found here¹. The main point of contact in Malta is Expo @ Acrosslimits.

Openly Licensed Data

0,1% of the 55,165 objects in Europeana provided by Malta are openly licensed². In the case of Malta these records are shown with the internationally accredited Public Domain mark³, which gives a clear indication to users that they can use the digital material as they wish, incorporating it into educational resources and cultural tourism packages, for example. Openly Licensed data is important as it allows contribution of content to education, Creative Industries, exhibitions and the like.

Web Traffic & Usage on Europeana Collections coming from Malta

The strategy of Europeana⁴ is to increase use of cultural heritage data by placing the material where users are. This does require the data to be under an open license in the main so that education, research systems and creative industry users can access automatically.

Highlights

The annual presidency event was held on 23 and 24 May in the premises of the Conference centre of Ғағiar Qim, while Malta is hosting the EU presidency. A high-level strategy meeting, it was primarily targeted at policymakers of EU member states as a means to raise awareness about what Europeana does in culture and education, and how it can help them in their own work. The purpose was to build on the 'Europeana for Education Policy Recommendations' designed in May 2015 during the Italian Presidency of the EU, and more specifically 'Recommendation II. Prioritise the provision of 'Fit for Education and Learning' content by cultural heritage institutions and ministries'.

Europeana Network Association

The Europeana Network Association is a dedicated group of experts working in the field of digital heritage. To this date 8 people from Malta have registered to become a Europeana Network Association Member.

Every year the Europeana Network Association elects the Members Council consisting of 36 members who play a crucial role across all Europeana's activities.

Also the Members Council appoints six members to form its Management Board, who sit on the Europeana Governing Board and represent the Network in the Europeana Foundation's executive decision making.
